

The bar graph compares the last 10 years of the valuation of all construction projects in the City. Annually, the square foot values go up due to increases in material and labor costs.

