Applicants sought for communications advisory seats

In an effort to enhance two-way interactions and customer service, the City of Prior Lake is now seeking applicants to fill two of the five seats on its newly-formed Communications Advisory Committee.

The new advisory committee will make recommendations about communications with the public in day-to-day business affairs, suggest ways to promote community pride, identity and image; suggest enhancements in communications tools and monitor progress of the communications plan.

The committee will be comprised of five individuals – Councilman Steve Millar, Councilman Chad LeMair, and City Manager Frank Boyles or a staff person of his choosing, in addition to Communications Coordinator Nathan Oster.

The two city residents who are appointed to this committee will be asked to serve a three year term. Meetings will be quarterly or on an as-needed basis on the fourth Tuesdays of January, April, July and October.

Application forms and the advisory body's bylaws are available on the city's Web site, www.cityofpriorlake.com, or by contacting Administrative Assistant Charlotte Green at (952) 447-9803. The application deadline is Friday, Feb. 24.
